SHORT ANSWER. Write the word or phrase that best completes each statement or answers the question.

- 41) How do different frames of reference cause miscommunication?

Answer: Miscommunication frequently occurs because every individual makes meaning using different frames of reference. We always interpret messages in the light of our perceptions, based on personal experiences, our cultures and subcultures, and the time in which we live.

- 42) Since audience analysis is central to the success of your message, what information do you need to consider about your audience?

Answer: You will need to consider the following pertinent information about the audience:

- Their knowledge about your topic
- Their demographic factors, such as age, gender, education, income, class, marital status, number of children, home ownership, location
- Their personality
- Their attitudes, values, and beliefs
- Their past behaviour

- 43) What is organizational culture?

Answer: An organization's culture is its values, attitudes, and philosophies. Once established, organizational or corporate culture can shape members' attitudes and behaviours, and become very difficult to change. Organizational or corporate culture reveals itself verbally in the organization's myths, stories, and heroes, and non-verbally in the allocation of space, money, and power.

44) What are some strategies you can use to choose the appropriate medium for your communication?

Answer: -Choose the channels that best suit your purposes and audience needs: sensitive information requires face to face communication; complicated information needs written and/or visual support.

-Use multiple channels whenever possible.

-Choose the medium that best suits your purposes, your relationship with the audience, and audience needs: when you know your audience, and you're sending a simple message, texting is fine; however, effective crisis communication requires a variety of media.

45) What are the advantages of oral communication?

Answer: Speaking is easier and more efficient when you need to do any of the following:

- Answer questions, resolve conflicts, and build consensus

- Use emotion to help persuade the audience

- Provoke an immediate action or response

- Focus the audience's attention on specific points

- Modify a proposal that may not be acceptable in its original form
